Overview

Excellent land, ready for you to install a manufactured home. It has a very good location, since it is at the very entrance of Thonotosassa, which is a growing city with great development. This is the last lot of this society, which makes it sought after since it only has neighbors on one side, and has more space. It is a quiet and reserved place. Don't just look at the photos, come and visit it, you will love it.
