Overview

In the Woosely Palms addition, located in the heart of Lumberton, stands a magnificent home ready for its next chapter. This grand residence, with its tall ceilings and open-concept design, is perfect for family gatherings and festive celebrations. The kitchen, seamlessly flowing into the living room, creates a warm and inviting space for all who enter. This home is not just ordinary. The owners have installed solar panels to harness the sun's power, significantly reducing electricity costs. The tinted windows keep the home cool and comfortable, while the master bedroom features a mini-split system for custom temperature control a true luxury. Outside, the large backyard offers ample space for games, gardening, or simply relaxing. This home is ideal for a large family or for hosting guests, ensuring everyone feels welcome and at ease. The story of this extraordinary home continues, waiting for you to write the next chapter. Call today to schedule your private tour!
