Overview

POSTCARD CHARMING! This authentic log cabin is surrounded by aspen trees and nestled in the heart of Pike national forest. This outdoor paradise is minutes away from fishing, hiking, kayaking and boating on Wellington Lake. With open space all around, it would be hard not to find the outdoor adventure you are looking for. This year-round cabin has all the amenities! Well, Septic system, Satellite TV, and High-speed Internet. Enjoy the evenings on the large front deck. Drink coffee in the morning and watch the wildlife go by. With the double pane windows (installed last year) the Napoleon wood fire insert, and the high efficiency forced air gas furnace you will stay toasty warm in the winter months. The owner has had the windows, chimney and most of the electrical replaced. This cabin is as solid and comfortable as it looks. Whether you want to work remotely or use the home as a weekend getaway it is just an hour from metro Denver. Once you are there you can feel the Rocky Mountain charm and tranquility. Please come have a look and make this the mountain retreat you have always dreamed of!
