Overview

Perched atop a hill, this home offers stunning panoramic views of the Texas Hill Country, and once Medina Lake is full again, you'll enjoy a beautiful lake view right from your doorstep. The main residence spans 1,862 square feet and includes 2 bedrooms and 2.5 baths. The master suite is conveniently located on the ground floor, while the second bedroom is upstairs, adjacent to a loft that overlooks the living area. Step out onto the spacious back deck for serene outdoor living. In addition, there's a detached garage with a 588-square-foot unfinished apartment above, perfect for guest accommodations or as a potential income-generating rental. The property also includes a separate storage building, and the garage below provides additional storage space. While the home does require some TLC, it's being offered As-Is, providing an opportunity to add your personal touch to this unique property.
