Overview

Enjoy living in a scenic cabin-like setting in the country just a few miles from Nelson! This one-owner home has lots to offer with hiking, boating and hunting opportunities close by. The one and one-half story home consists of the living room with gas fireplace and beautiful vaulted ceiling, informal dining/kitchen area, large bedroom, full bath and laundry room on the main level. Finishing the porch would provide additional space adjacent to the patio to enjoy the scenery. The upper level is the bedroom/loft area plus a half bath and closet/storage space. The home does need some TLC and updates, but the structure is solid and ready for your creative touch. It would also be a great investment opportunity to utilize as a rental property. With 1.79 acres, there is room for an additional future building. Schedule your showing soon!
