Overview

Sited on 7.16 acres graced by the Bennington Battle Monument this handsomely crafted saltbox colonial has many authentic features. Spacious light filled living room with wood burning fireplace and coffered ceiling. Country kitchen with dining area and spectacular mountain views with easy access to the large expansive private deck. A family room and formal dining room, three-quarter bath and laundry room complete the first floor. On the second floor are four bedrooms, including a primary suite and two full bathrooms. A studio apartment above the garage completes this property. This home offers beautiful millwork, a lovely inground pool, prime location and magnificent views. Large, private backyard perfect for intimate outdoor parties, manageable perennial gardens and fruit trees. A must see.
