Overview

Are you looking for a light-filled NORTH facing home (approx 1635 sq ft) that speaks to you the minute you walk in? A sparkling, happy home that infiltrates your senses and evokes an overall sense of harmony and is located in one of the best places to live in California? Welcome to 3144 Snowdrop Circle. As you enter, the voluminous spacious living room with captivating soaring ceilings sets the tone for an overall sense of harmony and is a comfortable place for movie night by the cozy fireplace. The kitchen/family room combination is great for entertaining and flows seamlessly to the backyard. As you ascend to the second level, the massive primary suite boasts high ceilings with ceiling fan, walk-in closet, soaking tub and separate stall shower. Two good-sized bedrooms and a hall bath complete the second level. This home has a coveted location in the community and privacy abounds with no house in front. Enjoy the community pool and the convenience of the HOA maintaining the front yard. The premium location is right by Amaral Park, Mohr Elementary School, shopping, dining, Arroyo Mocho Trail. This highly sought after Mendocino model is rarely available - must see!
