Overview

Situated on a large, private lot in the envious Whistling Valley neighborhood, this incredibly unique, prairie-style home displays rare architectural details you won't find elsewhere. Gorgeous water and landscape features that include two firepots at the entrance are just the start of the grand highlights as you make your way down a long corridor lined with limestone columns and inside to breathtaking spaces. Stand in awe of light-filled rooms that feature vaulted and beamed ceilings, gleaming Brazilian cherry hardwood floors, and limestone piers and walls. The entire home is surrounded by walls of windows that lend serene views of nature and Goose Lake, and in the great room, a floor-to-ceiling, limestone fireplace is a statement piece shared with the master bedroom on the opposite side. Also fall in love with the remarkably renovated kitchen filled with lavish selections of tile, lighting, cabinetry, and countertops, not to mention a stunning wet bar to fulfill your entertaining needs. In addition, a spacious dining area showcases a floor-to-ceiling, tile and copper surround fireplace, along with two adjacent office spaces with beautiful built-in workstations. And located in its own private wing is the deluxe Owners suite with separate outdoor access to a tranquil, covered patio; and unwind the day in the dazzling en suite that has been completely remodeled with subway tiled walls, a marble surround shower, freestanding tub, and double vanity- all with top-of-the line fixtures. Plus, a favorable dressing room fulfills all your storage needs with its extensive organization system and offers convenient access to a dedicated laundry room. Other main level conveniences include a handy mudroom with a sink station and tons of storage, a walk-in pantry, remarkable half bath with custom designed walls and vanity, and an elevator that takes you to the lower level thats full of desired amenities. Enjoy more of those limestone wall features that lead to a cozy family room with a granite surround fireplace, two luxurious bedroom suites with spa-like baths, a Finnish sauna, wet bar and laundry room, even a golf simulator! This wonder of a home is everything you could ask for and more.
