Overview

Built by a builder in 1970, who spared no expense, this immaculate 3 large bedroom, 2-1/2 bath home has great bones and a solid foundation. A beautiful sunrise and seasonal sunsets can be viewed from this wonderful home. Located close to Three Oaks historic downtown shops, restaurants, distillery and theaters. This home with its meticulously manicured lawn features a welcoming double entry door with slate flooring. The large family room features a wood burning fireplace overlooking the nicely landscaped backyard. The kitchen is open to the breakfast nook and the family room. Sliding glass doors open to the private patio with its mature tall shrubs allowing for privacy when relaxing, having your morning coffee or entertaining. Other features of this home include a dining room open to the living room with its large bay windows. The home has plenty of closets and storage space including a full basement ready for paneling. The two car garage nicely paneled in wood throughout has a great workshop/hobby area with a side service door for easy access in and out. This could be the dream home you have been looking for.
