Overview

Stunning renovation of this 1914 shingle style Bailey home in one of Dedhams finest neighborhoods. The renowned architect (designer of both the Endicott Estate and Chatham Bars Inn) built this with his trademark detailelegant entry foyer and staircase, crown moldings, banks of windows, built in seating and glass paneled cabinets, exquisite fireplace nook. No expense spared in this bringing this historic home back to life. Generously proportioned rooms with custom windows. Stunning great room for living and dining. Hardwood floors throughout. Handsome wood paneled dining room open to the custom new kitchen. Beautiful primary suite. A sleeping porch sure to be everyones favorite space. Open stairs to 3rd floor guest bed, bath and family room/office. Garden level w/ walkout access from billiards room. Newly constructed 2 car garage. Terrace overlooking nearly half acre lot. Ideal location close to Boston, walking distance to Endicott Est, library, commuter rail, bustling Dedham Square.
