Overview

Imagine waking up each morning in your own private, 1.5 acre retreat perched on a bluff, with the vast Atlantic on one side and serene bay views on the other. The sound of the waves and the coastal breeze greet you as you step outside to watch the sunrise. Your Post and Beam home crafted with care, lovingly maintained and lived in by just one family, sets high above the shoreline, offering a peaceful escape from the world yet just a short walk to 3.5 miles of sandy beach and the lively energy of local restaurants, shops, and entertainment. This property has been the destination place for family and friends and offers more than just a home. You can keep this sanctuary all to yourself, preserving its tranquility and beauty, or you can build new homes for family, creating a coastal compound for generations to come. Perhaps you all develop a new community for others to enjoy this remarkable location. However you choose to write your next chapter, this rare coastal property is ready to be part of your story.
