Overview

This exceptional vacant land offers breathtaking views of the mountains and valley, with interior roads already installed leading to two cleared building sites, making the property easily accessible. Multiple building sites are available, each offering stunning vistas, surrounded by striking rock cliffs and outcroppings. The property features both upper and lower ridges, providing ideal locations for your dream home. With power and phone lines conveniently located at the edge of the property and just minutes from a paved and maintained county road, this land is a perfect blend of seclusion and accessibility, only 30 minutes from Trinidad.
