Overview

LOT 7 / Experience the beauty and tranquility of Poplar Hill Bluff, an intimate community where nature's splendor meets thoughtful stewardship, and every detail is designed to enrich your living experience. Perched on a hill, surrounded by mature hardwoods and native vegetation, ten custom-built homesites designed by Doug Schmitt await. Each home features harmonious architecture, timeless curb appeal and sustainable design elements that enhance both beauty and function. Beyond the threshold, each home plan has effortless attention to detail and a seamless flow from room to room, greeting you with a mix of open and private spaces, along with an abundance of natural light. Located at the crux of the highly sought-after Indian Hills and Riverwood neighborhoods, Poplar Hill Bluff provides residents with unparalleled access to local amenities and attractions. All construction to be completed by Wilkinson Builders. The basement is unfinished but does have a roughed in bedroom, bath, and masonry fireplace. Prices are subject to change based on material cost. Please contact listing agents for full price range breakdown, additional marketing materials and other questions. Steet names subject to change.
