Overview

Stunning west facing home with panoramic Mount Tamalpais, Mill Valley, sunset, and Picklewood Inlet/Richardson Bay water views. Sited on a uniquely large, 1.2 acre lot, centrally located near the Town of Mill Valley yet close to Highway 101 for convenient access south to the Golden Gate Bridge and north to the wine country. Built in 1995, the Craftsman style main house is four bedrooms and four baths. Additionally, a fully permitted, 825 square foot, one bedroom ADU was built in 2017 with a full kitchen, bathroom, and fabulous views. The home has a grand scale with lots of natural light and high volume, vaulted ceilings. Several outdoor decks and seating areas. Three car garage with additional parking for 5+ cars. Located on a quiet cul-de-sac above Hauke Park and the Sausalito bike path. Near the Mill Valley Community Center, Mill Valley schools, shopping, and Whole Foods. Custom designed by renowned local architect Colin Russell/Russell Architects.
