Overview

Welcome to 52 Bonner Road in Meriden, NH. This immaculate 6-room house is nestled in a serene environment and is walking distance to conservation land with easy access to the Plainfield Trails, offering opportunities for hiking, biking, cross country skiing, or leisurely strolls. Plainfield Elementary School, Kimball Union Academy, Town Offices, and the Post Office are just a short walk away. The property is surrounded by beautiful, extensive landscaping. You'll find a well-lit kitchen that features a large island, a pantry closet, and a slider that opens to a 20x16 deck. This area is ideal for cooking and social gatherings. The living room is welcoming and features hardwood floors providing a comfortable space for family and friends. The primary bedroom comes with an ensuite bath featuring double sinks, offering convenience and privacy. An unfinished basement that is insulated and equipped with large patio doors and windows opening to a lower level walk out patio adding potential for future expansion. The property also benefits from on-demand hot water, a Buderus boiler, and a 200 amp electric service. For extra reliability, a generator is included and easily connected by an underground connection in the garage. The two car garage will store your vehicles and more. Its location is highly advantageous, being less than 15 miles from Dartmouth Medical Center and other major employers in the area. Showings begin 8/24/24
