Overview

378 stunning acres located west of Charlottesville in the foot of the Blue Ridge, sharing a long boundary with the Shenandoah National Park. The land has numerous elevated building sites with amazing views, and complete privacy, and includes long frontage on the head waters of the Doyles River. With a significant trail system, the property is ideal for hiking, riding, and hunting. Included in the property is log cabin, and a large utility barn. Land is protected by a conservation easement. Rare opportunity to own a significant parcel that adjoins the Park.
