Overview

Calling All Short-Term Rental Enthusiasts! Discover this charming, newly built 1-bedroom, 1-bathroom cabin (2022), a perfect blend of modern comfort and rustic allure. Ideal as a personal retreat or a lucrative investment, this cozy getaway is ready to welcome guests. But that's not all! This property also includes two unique glamping units, built in 2022, offering a back-to-nature experience with essential amenities and a shared bathroom. These units are a blank canvas, ready for your creative touch to transform them into memorable stays, or simply enjoy them as they are. Recently added to a new management company, this property is already beginning to gain traction in the short-term rental market. Set on 2 serene acres, it's just 8 minutes from the world-renowned Muir Valley, famous for its climbing routes and trails, and only minutes from the entrance to Red River Gorge, Sky Bridge Station, The Brick (Ice Cream), and many other local attractions. Don't miss this incredible opportunity to own a versatile property that offers both relaxation and growing revenue potential!
