Overview

Historic Elegance Meets Modern Comfort in Downtown Columbia Nestled on a picturesque street just off the square in downtown Columbia, this absolutely stunning home, built during the roaring 1920s, stands as a testament to timeless craftsmanship and luxury. Imagine the stories these walls could tell a glimpse into a past where this grand residence was likely owned by one of the town's wealthiest residents. Over the years, each owner has lovingly added their own special touches, creating a unique blend of historic charm and contemporary comfort. The modern kitchen is a chef's dream, featuring Corian countertops, sleek white cabinets, and top-of-the-line stainless steel appliances. The smooth cooktop stove/oven, built-in microwave drawer, and French door refrigerator with an ice maker, water dispenser, and bottom freezer make cooking a joy. Recessed lighting and a stylish tiled backsplash complete this inviting space. The master bedroom suite is nothing short of luxurious, occupying its own wing of the home. A natural gas fireplace with custom bookshelves on either side creates a cozy retreat. A sliding barn door leads to the master bath, where you'll find tiled floors and walls, a glass walk-in shower, a soaking tub, and a privacy wall surrounding the water closet. The adjoining walk-in closet offers ample space for all her clothes, with room for a few of his as well. The main level also features a second bedroom or office space with its own bath, a formal dining room, a living room, a utility room, and a grand front entryway with a stunning staircase leading to the upper floor. A second staircase at the back of the home, with a built-in dog home under the steps, provides convenient access to the upstairs. This staircase also leads to the fenced backyard, where a dog door allows easy access for your furry friends. Upstairs, you'll discover another charming fireplace, three to four additional bedrooms, and a full bath. The exterior of the home is just as impressive, with a covered front porch, two covered side porches, and a fenced backyard that boasts mature shade trees and a beautiful gazebo. Additionally, the property includes a detached three-car garage and workshop that resembles a tiny home, offering endless possibilities. This historic gem offers immediate possession, so don't waitcall today to make this dream home your own!
