Overview

Discover a unique opportunity to own a piece of history with this home nestled along Neacoxie Creek, once a vibrant city park in the 1950s. This legacy property has been cherished by the same family for over 65 years, offering a blend of nostalgia and potential. Set on a generous 0.77 acres, the property features a cozy 3-bedroom, 1-bathroom home with ample room for expansion or development, as it includes buildable lots. Enjoy the serene surroundings and the convenience of being just a short walk from the beach and golf course, all situated on a peaceful dead-end road. Embrace the charm of this special location and create your own lasting memories! Buyers to do all due diligence.
