Overview

Charming 1920s home in Harper, TX, offering vintage character with modern conveniences! This cozy residence features high ceilings, some original hardwood floors (it is believed to have wood floors under the vinyl). Recent updates, including newer appliances, updated PEX plumbing in the guest house, and a new septic system to be installed before closing. The property also includes a 310 sq ft guest house, ideal for rental income during hunting season. Situated on a spacious lot with potential for residential or commercial use, this property offers the perfect blend of country tranquility and highway convenience. A unique opportunity for homeowners and investors alike to own a piece of history in the Texas Hill Country!
