Overview

Back on the market due to no fault of the seller or house. When you drive past this home, it looks like a little dollhouse. All metal roof and newer windows make it nice to look at as well as affordable to live in. New flooring in the living/kitchen area. Nice front porch and newly painted back deck. Nice private back yard just waiting for game night and a shed for extra storage. New tub and plenty of closet space in the bedrooms and bath. New window units. The utility bills are very reasonable in this home which makes it that much more appealing. Come take a look. Price is right and home warranty is being offered for even more security.
