Overview

Cozy yet surprisingly spacious home at the west end of town. Freshly painted throughout, some new flooring, upgraded bath, and a quaint fenced-in yard requiring minimal upkeep. Within two short blocks from home, you can walk to the grocery and pharmacy stores. In summer months, walk a block to the park or relax on your own front porch while enjoying live music from Kennedy Park. In Fall, there's the excitement of Panther Valley School District's Friday night football and knee-hi football on Sunday afternoons only half a block away. Close to main artery Rt. 209 and 1 1/2 miles to St Luke's Hospital Miners Campus. Schedule your appointment for a showing soon! NOTE: Seller is the spouse of the listing agent.
