Overview

The historic George B. Parr house located in San Diego, TX is for sale. This hacienda style home sits on 1.6 acres offering room for expansion, gardening or a place for the kids to play. This 6, 600 square footage home consists of 4 large bedrooms and 3 bathrooms. There is an adjacent private quarter with one bed/one bath, perfect for a mother in-law suite. The home also has a large 3-car garage. This home is close to all schools and Vaquero stadium. Along with offering a historic cache, the home has great potential with a patio and swimming pool areas. The listing price for the home is $250, 000 as is. The historic home is in need of repairs, but with the right modernization could be beautiful and a lucrative investment. Any viewings of the home will be coordinated through the realtor Michael Perez. Finally, before prospective buyers are allowed to view the home, proof of funds or the ability to qualify for a mortgage must be presented. Contact Michael Perez for viewings or any other questions.
