Overview

Embrace the quintessential Maine lifestyle with this exquisite reproduction Cape-style home, featuring over 400 feet of pristine waterfrontage on Maple Juice Cove. Located in the picturesque rural village of Cushing, celebrated for its connection to the renowned artist Andrew Wyeth, this property seamlessly blends natural beauty w/ nostalgic antique charm. This gracious home features a formal dining room and a spacious living room with a fireplace, both exuding the timeless charm of antique Cape-style elegance. The kitchen is a chef's delight, boasting custom pine cabinets and drawers, a butcher block countertop, and separate pantry closet. Practical tile floors add a touch of convenience, making kitchen maintenance a breeze. The open-concept design of this home seamlessly connects the kitchen with an informal dining area and family room area. In the informal dining area, there is a wood stove and a sliding door, which leads you to a spacious waterside deck. During the warmer months, you'll enjoy al-fresco dining while taking in the serene beauty of Maple Juice Cove. In the family room area there are abundant windows, offering breathtaking water views. Additionally, a conveniently located half-bath is situated off the kitchen on the 1st floor. For practical purposes, you might find yourself enetering through the mudroom w/ tile floors, double closets and a large bay window - showcasing the waterviews. The mudroom leads into the two-car attached garage with a fantastic finished bonus room above - perfect for hobbists/artists or overflow area for guests. Outside, you'll enjoy the privacy on this 1.4-acre property. On the property is detached 3-stall horse barn complete with a tack room, hay loft, spacious workshop area, and connected greenhouse. Water is readily available for both the barn and greenhouse. Additionally, the property includes a wood shed with a supply of firewood, and an on-demand generator ensures peace of mind during power outage.
