Overview

LUXURY is the first word that comes to mind. Located on the neck of Cotuit, this home is very close to exclusive sandy beaches, and surrounded by quiet neighborhoods that are accented by lush natural landscapes. The private enclave in the backyard is decorated by lush plantings that contrast with the seasons. The custom outdoor living areas conveniently cascade from the kitchen to the outdoor serenity. This home has been renovated and expanded with first floor living that includes high end finishes made of Mable, quartz, porcelain and soapstone. All appliances are of luxury brands. The details have been methodically thought through with surround sound and AV, wet bars, fenced in area for pets, and well positioned to add a pool that intertwines with the finished basement. There is also a fully equipped in-law suite with its own kitchen, laundry and outdoor living. This hidden estate has it all, come see this custom beauty for yourself!
