Overview

Remarkable 25-acre, secluded paradise. Mostly untouched landscape offers mountain views. Easy access to Hendersonville (12 miles) and Greenville (30 miles). Genuine mid-century modern home with other buildable sites. Home was crafted by Mrs. Mary Kellogg Bell, co-creator of Camp Glen Arden and Camp Arrowhead, this residence epitomizes hospitality. The home offers expansive windows framing Blue Ridge mountains and Green River Valley. Wormy Chestnut paneling and walnut flooring, and oak flooring sourced from the estate, with brick rescued from homes in Greenville Water Shed. Seize a rare opportunity to embrace secluded acreage with convenient access to city offerings. 165 adjacent acres with bold creek and waterfalls is available.
