Overview

Welcome to this great, potential property. This property offers a 20 Acres of level land to build your ranch. There are houses and has 2 water wells, one of which is currently operating and the second on is turn off, just needs to be turn on. One of the houses need to be remodeled to make it livable. It also has a double garage attached to the two bedrooms house. Both houses have their own electrical meters and gas meters. There are nearby ranches with similar lots of 20 acres. The City of Hinkley has built a post office building across street from this ranch. Write your offers subject to inspection of the property potential for subdividing into four five acres parcels. Buyer must do their own investigation with County of San Bernardino.
