Overview

Welcome to this lovely turn of the century schoolhouse in the northern Michigan countryside. This charming historic property has many of the original details and features wood flooring, the antique school bell, a woodstove, plenty of natural light, a large garage with ample storage, and a spacious yard. Recent updates include a new boiler, new exterior paint, new stove, and new windows. This would make a great up north retreat or a year round residence for anyone seeking a little privacy but still wanting to be close to nearby towns. This property is a short 8 minute drive to Cross Village and driving distance to Mackinaw City, Harbor Springs, Petoskey, Pellston, and Alanson.
