Overview

Experience the epitome of contemporary elegance in this exquisite Northwest home, offering breathtaking views of Mt. Hood, the sparkling lights of Portland, and the serene Columbia River. This custom-built residence shows well with its magnificent cabinetry in its sleek, modern kitchen, complemented by state-of-the-art features throughout. Soaring high ceilings, a refined modern banister, and European Engineered Oak Floors enhance the sophisticated ambiance. The daylight basement, currently serving as a workshop, is fully plumbed and primed for conversion into an ADU, providing versatile living options. Unique floor plan, electric or gas option for cooking and expansive laundry room. Driveway is steep but an easy drive up with lot's of flat parking available. Room for small RV or Camper parking - could also be converted to additional covered parking or workshop. Views and highend finishes throughout this turnkey property.
