Overview

Introducing the Benjamin Nourse House. First time on the market in over 60 years! This charming multi-family home, sited on a desirable downtown street, offers immense potential. While in need of renovation, the property boasts a prime location and a rare two-car garage, making it a worthwhile investment. Imagine restoring this character-filled house to its former glory while capitalizing on the valuable land and garage. Whether you're seeking a personal sanctuary or a lucrative rental property, this historic gem is ready to be transformed. Don't miss this chance to own a piece of the Westboro's past with a bright future.
