Overview

This elegant Revival/Federal Colonial home combines historic charm with modern amenities. A home is rich with history and is one of Framingham's signature homes. The Dr. John W. Osgood House, circa 1840, incorporates exquisite period detail with stunning and substantial updates accommodating modern lifestyles. The spectacular chefs kitchen forms the heart of the home showcasing new appliances, ample counter space, and a central island perfect for casual dining or entertaining. It features spacious reception rooms, fine wood floors, period woodwork, high ceilings, with three floors of living space. Special features include a newly updated 2024 kitchen, a brand-new mudroom/entryway area with a laundry room and bath, a great room with a bath over the garage with a separate entrance, and a third-floor retreat. Set on 1.19 acres of lushly landscaped grounds, the property offers unexpected privacy and enjoyment of outdoor spaces. Conveniently located from the Common, stores/university
