Overview

Nestled on the picturesque shores of Payette Lake in McCall, Idaho, this log cabin offers a unique blend of rustic charm and serene lakeside living. It sits on a rare sandy beach, providing easy access to the lake's beautiful waters and stunning panoramic views of the surrounding mountains. Built in 1940, this log cabin retains its original character. It has exposed log beams, wooden floors, and a cozy stone fireplace, offering a warm and inviting atmosphere. Step outside to your private sandy beach which is perfect for sunbathing, swimming, and launching kayaks or paddleboards. Park your boat or jet skis on your own private dock. From your backyard, enjoy breathtaking sunsets over the lake. Located just minutes from downtown McCall, you'll have easy access to charming shops, restaurants, and recreational opportunities, including hiking, boating, and skiing in the nearby mountains.
