Overview

This is an incredible lot to build your dream home. This property has many trees that the developers left to create an established feel in the neighborhood. It also has a swath of trees behind that the property that create a natural and dense barrier between the backyard and the walking trail and common area. No backyard neighbors - EVER. With a full acre, this is one of the premium lots in Azalea Hollow. Large enough to encompass your dream home, pool, outdoor kitchen and even a Casita for parents, older children or overflow guests. Are you ready to make your dreams a reality? Let's do it!
