Overview

Next level Ahhhh Factor! The approach to this amazing home starts with a custom designed Zen garden entrance. When inside you'll experience unobstructed panoramic views of Boston City skyline, Boston Light, and the Boston Harbor Islands all from your expansive deck 50+ feet above the ocean. No flood insurance required! The custom kitchen with high end appliances, custom cabinets and welcoming center island. The granite blends all the colors of this custom design. You have 4 bedrooms with ocean views. An expansive living room, custom kitchen, dining room, den, one bedroom and bath are all on the main level with access to two decks. The ocean side deck incorporates a hot tub at one end with plenty of room for entertaining. The lower level has the family room, gym with sauna, and incredible custom bathroom with a huge shower and custom lighting. This only begins to describe the luxury of this home. The lower level accesses the roomy 2 car garage (29'x29') with room for storage.
