Overview

A slice of heaven here on earth! This 135 acre property is located in a very nice country setting, with approximately 94 acres of tillable farmland and 41 wooded acres with some mature trees. You're just minutes away from the beautiful towns of Port Sanilac and Lexington. Both towns offer yummy restaurants, locally owned shops, and beautiful Lake Huron. Whether you're looking for that dream property surround BY wildlife for hunting, a peaceful spot to build your home, or a decent size of property to farm - this location has lots to offer! Land is currently rented. Farmer reserves the right to harvest under tenant rights for the 2024 season. Please do not walk property without a real estate agent.
