Large square foot home with lots of rooms and options. Multiple bedrooms and bathrooms on each level. The home is leased to one tenant, PadSplit, which hosts the property on their platform. PadSplit is a workforce housing solution that not only helps members save money and live closer to work but provides a great investment for its owner. All members are professionally screened by PadSplit, required to pass a criminal background check and undergo income verification. PadSplit handles inbound requests from members and enforces house rules. One rent payment is direct-deposited into the owner's bank account based on the home's previous month's performance.
