Overview

Welcome to 1251 County Rd, Cataumet. This enchanting antique home exudes timeless charm and character while featuring many modern updates. With three cozy bedrooms and one bath, the home showcases wide pine floorboards and working wood-burning fireplaces that speak to its historic roots, ensuring comfort and peace of mind. Set on over two and a half acres of sprawling tranquility, this property is a true countryside retreat while still being close to the ocean and all that the Cape has to offer. The expansive grounds include a private pond, a greenhouse, and a separately metered garage/workshop. The stables, currently perfect for farm equipment and livestock, offer incredible potential to be converted into additional living space. With a 5-bedroom septic system in place, the possibilities for this property are endless. 1251 County Rd offers the perfect canvas for your vision.
