Overview

Beautiful split-level home located in a private setting with 5.67 unrestricted acres. Lots of natural light in the kitchen with granite countertops and stainless appliances. A separate dining area for those family gatherings with a rock fireplace which is also shared by the living room. Large master bedroom with master bath and another completely remodeled bathroom down the extra wide hallway. The 2 other bedrooms are ample size and the laundry room has extra space for storage. In the basement another rock fireplace makes for a cozy family room or could be used as an office space. Plenty of storage and an area for a workshop along with the garage. Maybe just the home you are searching for?
