Overview

As the morning sun gently illuminates the tranquil waters of Chadwick Bay, 155 Big Hammock Point Rd invites you to experience a waterfront retreat like no other. Step into a home that has been transformed- from freshly painted interiors to elegantly refinished floors. The heart of the home, adorned with new quartz countertops, boasts a chef's dream with a 6-burner Viking cooktop and freshly painted cabinets and new appliances. Picture yourself preparing meals while overlooking the bay through generously spaced windows. The allure of this residence extends beyond its interiors. Venture onto the decks that wrap around the home, providing not just one, but multiple vantage points to savor the spectacle of water meeting sky. These outdoor spaces, both expansive and intimate, invite you to entertain under the sun or stars, grilling the catch of the day as the sun sets over the horizon. If you're seeking a "Life on the Water Lifestyle," look no further. This home comes complete with a private boat slip and a 10, 000 lb boat lift at the community dock, just a few doors down. A low maintenance exterior ensures you have more time for the activities that matter most whether it's launching a kayak, paddleboards, or jetskis from your private dock or embarking on a boating adventure. New HVAC system installed 2024. But the enchantment doesn't stop within the property lines. Extend your gaze into Chadwick Bay, where a 250-foot private pier and dock await, offering step-down water access for kayaks, canoes, and watercrafts. Across the street, relish views of the Intracoastal and take advantage of a separate deeded boat slip with a 10k lbs. lift. The master suite, a retreat within a retreat, beckons with a private exit to the upper deck and a fully equipped en suite. With a fenced property and protective storm shutters on windows and doors, this home offers security and peace of mind. Situated on over half an acre in Pelican Point, one of Onslow County's most coveted waterfront subdivisions, this home is not just a residence; it's an invitation to a waterfront oasis. Schedule your private showing today and let the sunsets and sparkling waters become a part of your everyday narrative. Call now to embrace the magic of waterside living at 155 Big Hammock Way.
