Overview

Turnkey hunting camp on the Little lunch creek. Upon entering this hunting oasis, you are greeted by a freshly restored barn and bunk house offering up storage for your equipment as well as a hunting camp complete with electric, water, and septic. Maintained trails allow for great access to hunting locations as well as sight seeing. Established foodplots are ready to hunt this year with various stands and box-blinds. This property is very well maintained and it truly is unique. There is plenty of room to build your dream house if you wish and the privacy is top notch!
