Overview

Unique, Gambrel Colonial, Timber Frame home, is a Masterpiece of exceptional detail, boasting museum-grade, reproduction-quality construction. Master carpenter, Arnold Jones, meticulously reconstructed the home over a 20-year period, employing original hand-made techniques like chamfered exposed beams, hand-planed wood surfaces and visible mortise and tenon joinery secured with wooden pegs. The property features high-level custom masonry, including an arched brick ceiling over the staircase, period doghouse dormers, transom windows, custom doors, wide plank flooring, and reproduction hardware throughout. With 10 fireplaces, a beehive cooking oven, and a brick masonry aesthetic wall, the home exudes quality craftsmanship. Offering 6 bedrooms, 5 bathrooms, three are en-suite bedrooms, the estate sits on 53 acres with 2 ponds, open meadows, woodlands, and an orchard boasting of apple, pear, peach and quince trees.
