Overview

Dubbed, 'The Old Parsonage, ' this 1798 Georgian Colonial served as the local clerics residence for over a century, when the Park Hill Meeting House was a community church. Immaculately restored, the home boasts a total of six fireplaces, with four of them working. The designer kitchen features soapstone countertops, a Viking gas range, cherry cabinetry, a window seat, and a beehive oven. The gracious dining room offers a lovely view through the bow window. The front parlor has built-in shelves framing the fireplace, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere. The library leads to a private screened porch with brick flooring, providing a relaxing space in summer. The first floor includes a walk-in pantry and full laundry. Upstairs, the primary bedroom suite is a true retreat, with a spacious walk-in closet and a large bath with double sinks. Across the broad center hallway, two more delightful bedrooms share a full bath, and an additional office or bedroom offers extra space for guests. A rear stairway with a hallway skylight leads to a private studio or exercise space. There is an oversized attached 2-bay garage as well. Located in Westmoreland, NH this home offers a tranquil lifestyle in a charming rural community on the banks of the Connecticut River. One of Cheshire County's notable historic homes. Enjoy outdoor activities, local farms, the Warwick Preserve, and nearby Keene and Walpole -- a serene living experience in the heart of New England. Open House Sun 8/4 12-2.
