Overview

Are you in the market for the perfect place to build your forever home? Well if so this 3.27 acre property is a must see that could make for an awesome homestead. The best way to describe it is conveniently Country as you are far enough from town for a little privacy but still an easy commute to local stores, restaurants, doctors, ect. To top things off you aren't far from the local military bases and beautiful white sandy beaches on the Emerald Coast. So bring the family and your house plans an get ready to call this property home.
