Overview

Own a piece of Amherst history in the Historic Garrison House , this beautiful home is the only remaining property like it in Amherst and at one time it's said to have been Amherst's first jail. As soon as you enter the home, you will fall in love, from the welcoming breezeway you're just steps to the incredible addition with tons of windows all around bringing the outside in. Here you will find the great room, perfect for relaxing and enjoying family time, as well as a huge bedroom and 3/4 bath with pedestal sink and tile flooring. On to the main house you will see there is a first floor laundry and a gorgeous remodeled kitchen with custom built pine cabinets and stainless appliances as well as hardwood flooring. Off the kitchen, enjoy the charming breakfast room leading to the formal living room with built in book cases. The formal dining room with built in corner china cabinets has all the atmosphere you need to entertain in style. There are 2 bedrooms on the second floor as well as a huge remodeled bathroom off the primary bedroom, just perfect! Nearly 3.5 acres of natural beauty to enjoy from almost every window. Top all this off with outstanding landscaping surrounding the property as well as a one car detached garage and custom made brick parking area, You will truly love and appreciate this home and all that the current owners have done to update and maintain the property making it a very special piece of Amherst history. Seller is offering 2% to Buyer Agent, 2% to Buyer
