Overview

Outdoor paradise! Have you been looking for the perfect homesteading property? This property features 13 picturesque acres, the perfect mixture of lawn, woods, and fields. Enjoy all the wildlife right from your back porch, a manmade pond perfect for your afternoon dip, or a morning coffee by the waterfall. Plenty of space for outdoor activities including a one of a kind horseshoe course with an outbuilding to spend the summer nights with friends and family.. Right near the main snowmobile and four wheeler trails, plenty of flowers and apple trees, and the list goes on. Walking inside you will enjoy the ease of one-floor living. The open concept kitchen/living room/ family room is perfect for entertaining. Enjoy your family meal in the separate dining room area in front of the beautiful picture window with plenty of sunlight. The master bedroom includes its own private bathroom with a shower and a bathtub. Two other nice sized bedrooms and a full bath complete this main living space. Downstairs in the massive garage is plenty of space for all of your toys and extra storage. This area features big daylight windows, so this space could be transformed to extra living space, workout space, or bedrooms. The detached 2 car garage is heated, has power and water, and is currently being used as a workshop. Only 10 minutes to downtown Skowhegan and 20 minutes to Waterville. Come make all of your dreams come true with this one of a kind property!
