Overview

Discover your paradise with 86 pristine acres in the Eidson TN Community of Hawkins County, on War Creek Road. This breathtaking East Tennessee Mountain Property is a haven for wildlife enthusiasts and athletes, boasting a rich ecosystem that includes whitetail deer, turkey, black bear, and small game. The land features mountain springs and a lively creek, set against a backdrop of densely wooded terrain and small hayfields ideal for food plots or tranquil retreats. It's been twenty years since the last timber harvest, promising mature, lush landscapes for exploration or sustainable logging. Partially cleared areas offer the perfect blend of open space and forested privacy. With available electricity and fiber net on the road, this property combines rugged mountain living with modern conveniences. Whether you're looking to hunt, build, or escape into nature, this land offers endless possibilities. Embrace the wilderness and make this mountain oasis your own.
