Overview

Looking for that possible forever home? This one has it all and you just might not want to ever move. This large like new and well appointed home on 5 plus acres with fenced in yard and 4 car garage (2 attached and 2 detached) located in a very desirable large acreage private community. You, your family and guests will absolute love all of the indoor and private outdoor features this property has to offer. Your guests will be greeted with an open floor plan with wood beams and soaring vaulted ceilings and entertaining style kitchen with views to the entire space as well as the amazing back yard. Kitchen features stainless steel appliances, a farmhouse sink and eat in bar. You will love the premium vinyl easy maintenance flooring and smartly designed layout in this lovely home. The main level master suite is also very spacious and you will appreciate the elegant tile work in the master bath with rain style shower head, easy step entry and glass shower door. If you like a large closet, you are going to love the closet space this master suite offers. Upstairs has a continued theme of large rooms and more than ample space for you, the family and guests to have their privacy. Out back features a private back yard with a nice sized covered rear porch that overlooks the large privacy fenced in back yard. Back yard is accessible from both the great room as well as from the detached garage. The detached garage could possibly double as space for a shop, office or simply additional storage for all those outdoor toys. Don't let this one get away. Call the Powell Real Estate Team today to schedule a tour.
