Overview

Dreaming of your very own oasis in the Red River Gorge? Welcome to "Endless Sunset". This beautifully crafted 2 bedroom, 2 full bathroom home features soaring ceilings, expansive windows showcasing a beautiful landscape overlooking a quaint pond and just the right touch of modern design while maintaining a cozy mountain chalet feel. Centrally located between both Natural Bridge State Park and the Red River Gorge Geological Area, the trails, restaurants and attractions are only a few minutes away and without the need for AWD to reach the property. Currently being operated as a successful vacation rental, this home has a proven track record of phenomenal guest reviews including the coveted "Airbnb Guest Favorite" badge and an impressive history of revenue generation. Situated on 1.6 acres of gently rolling land, there's plenty of room to spread out and even enjoy waterfront access in the nearby pond; a rare feature for this area. Whether you're searching for your forever home, or a vacation home that pays for itself, this property with its spacious open concept floor plan, well appointed kitchen, and convenient single level living complete with a cozy gas fireplace.
