Overview

This 1536 sf home contains 2 bedrooms (one of which is large enough to divide to create a 3rd), 2 bathrooms, a large open concept living room flows perfectly into the kitchen with a wood burning cooking/heating stove as a great focal point. From the kitchen you will find a large walk-in pantry. Electric lighting, plugs, etc. are provided power from a solar power set up, including a battery bank, 4000w inverter, etc. all up and powering the home. The solar power is supplemented by propane, utilizing an on-demand water heater, and a range/oven. Water for the home is provided by a drilled well. Apple, pear, and peach trees all are producing, and create a nice little orchard. The blueberries, raspberries, strawberries, and more are producing enough to eat, and preserve more for later. From the porch look a little further out, and you can see the fenced paddock area for livestock and a barn. The barn needs some TLC, but has potential and will add charm to an already picturesque country view. Nestled in a valley in Casey County, Kentucky near a large Amish/Mennonite community. Only 12 miles from the county seat, Liberty, KY. East/West running valley for great sun exposure and air flow.
