Overview

Looking for a home in the highly sought after subdivision of Brentwood, but can't wait for one to be built? Welcome to 7390 Edith Way! Less than one year old, this stunning home is practically brand new! This custom-built home features an open floor plan with four bedrooms - each with its own private bath access, a home office, three-car garage and a substantial walkout basement that is framed up and roughed in, ready to be finished to your taste! You will love the inviting details, upgrades and quality finishes that await you! 10-foot ceilings and solid eight-foot doors on the main level. Amish custom cabinetry, custom millwork and white oak carpentry accents. European oak hardwood flooring throughout the main floor and second story common areas. The spacious great room with elegant gas fireplace and beautiful views opens up to the gourmet kitchen complete with large island with barstool seating, separate dining area, quartz countertops, upgraded appliances and walk-in pantry. The primary bedroom has a hip tray ceiling, board and batten accent wall and ensuite bathroom featuring a tiled shower with all glass enclosure, garden tub, quartz countertops and a significant walk-in closet. The upper level offers a cozy loft overlooking the foyer, three sizable bedrooms and two full baths - one ensuite, the other a shared Jack and Jill. The home is situated at a higher elevation in the neighborhood so that you are greeted in the morning with breathtaking views of the sunrise over the hills from your covered back deck and in the evening with views of the sunset from your front porch. Home is equipped with a dual-zone HVAC system, providing better climate control throughout the multiple levels, as well as pre-installed Ethernet ports throughout for easier internet connection and enhanced performance. Don't miss out on this remarkable home in the award-winning school district of Oldham County! Brentwood amenities include pool, tennis courts and clubhouse!
